Why support West Green House Opera?

- West Green House Opera aims to produce the most beautiful Country House Opera, with excellent music, stunning gardens and an intimate atmosphere all performing in harmony. Our aim is to be true to the traditions associated with this most difficult of art forms with high quality yet small scale productions, an excellent garden brought to life with atmospheric lighting giving it a theatrical ambiance and wonderful dining; all done with a degree of stylish fantasy.
- An internationally respected production team commissions new works each year. We work with the best independent opera companies to deliver a mixed and stimulating repertoire. We have high quality production values focusing on exceptional voices and creative set designs.
- We invite other accomplished companies to perform at West Green. Recently we have collaborated with Sweden's Drottningholm's Slottsteater, Garsington's Emerging Artists programme and Oxford's New Chamber Opera.
- Supporting talented young musicians and emerging artists is an important part of our mission providing opportunities for them to perform in front of an established audience. Besides our association with young artists from Garsington we collaborate with the LPOs Foyle Future Firsts, the Guildhall and Purcell Schools of Music.
- Autumn 2012 heralded a new era for the opera. West Green House Opera Limited; a newly incorporated company was granted charitable status and a Board of Directors appointed; securing the continuation of opera at West Green House and enabling further investment in the auditorium and essential infrastructure. Importantly we aim make the transition from a traditional tented auditorium to a purpose built pavilion structure for the 2013 season that will enhance the audience experience whilst retaining West Green intimate atmosphere.
- By supporting West Green House Opera you will be contributing to both securing its future here at West Green and the on-going development of this fiendishly difficult art form. Ticket revenues cover less than half the costs of producing opera and financial support from individuals, corporates, trusts and foundations is essential if we are to maintain the quality of our work, invest in the future and continue to realise our goals. Donations are eligible for Gift Aid.

We thank you for your support.
